

Bate, Bate Chocolate

- TRADITIONAL - LATIN AMERICAN

Baté, Baté, Chocolate is a Folksong, about mixing (stirring/beating) chocolate which is often a part of breakfast in Mexico. The chocolate is mixed with a special tool called a molinillo and the song is often done as a fingerplay where the children pretend to mix along to the lyrics.

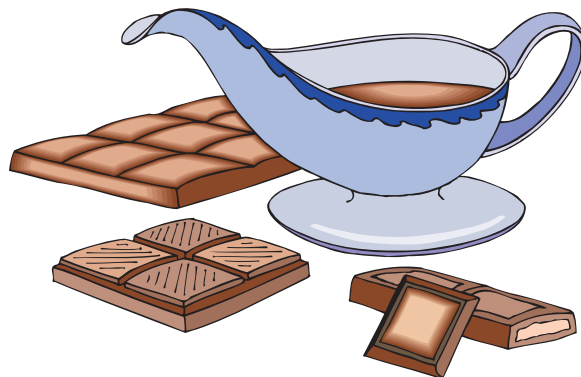

Uno, dos, tres – CHO

Uno, dos, tres – CO

Uno, dos, tres – LA

Uno, dos, tres – TE!

Chocolate, chocolate, bate bate, Chocolate,
Chocolate, chocolate, bate bate, Chocolate

bate, bate chocolate